THE LAND BOOM,

Hon, "Billy" Edwards of Larned, Pawpee county, Republican candidate for secretary of state in the recent campaign was in the city yesterday and called at the Eagle office. Mr. Edwards has made money by not being elected. Since July he has sold fifty sections of land and a few days ago made the sale of the Fort Larned acres, for $55,000. He says the buyers in his section of the country are mostly substantial farmers of lilinois and Indiana. CAPTAIN CAREY ANNOUNCED.

Mayor Carey is announced as a candidate for re-election. This will surprise his enemies no less than his friends, because it is unexpected. We do not know when, or why, he yielded to the pressure, but one thing is certain and that is the crowd who have hated him so thoroughly and fought him to the very verge of black-guardism at times, will now be compelled to support Razor the Weapon Used, Which bim or to trot out another candidate, either one of these two things or vote for the Republican nominee.

The good words tendered Captain Carey the other morning by the EAGLE were expressed, of course, in the absence of any idea that he would be a candidate, but they were honest words, and will not do him any harm, we hope, among his new whom this paper had said a good word.
